The end of an era at Sector for the Tigers

AXMINSTER Town footballers and spectators are planning major celebrations to mark their departure from Sector Lane, the iconic ground they have occupied for 91 years.

It promises to be a night full of nostalgia and emotion with players past and present gathering for a final farewell to the football ground that has played host to some of the greatest sporting occasions in Axminster's history.

The club will be staging a 'Farewell to Sector' dinner-dance in a marquee on the Sector pitch on Friday, June 8th with a series of family fun events the following day.

Tickets for the dinner-dance will go on sale shortly. All the Saturday events will be free of charge.

New ground

Next season the Tigers will ground share with Ottery St Mary FC whilst their new headquarters in Chard Road, adjacent to the Cloakham Lawn sports complex, is being built.

The job of converting the agricultural land into a new £2 million sporting stadium falls to Devonshire Homes

Ltd, property developers who will be building 70 new homes at Sector.

Planning permission for the new soccer pitches, training area and clubhouse was granted earlier last month and work on preparing the playing surfaces will commence shortly.

However, the pitches have to be allowed to settle for a year before they can be played on so Axminster will be playing the 2012-2013 season in the South West Peninsular League at Ottery's Washbrook Meadow.

Club chairman Ray Self told Pulman's View: "We plan to say goodbye to Sector Lane in style and we invite all those who have played for or supported Axminster over the years to join in our celebrations. It is definitely the end of an era.

"We are looking forward to moving to the new facilities in Chard Road but we will never forget the great matches and the fun times at Sector Lane."

The family fun day on Saturday, June 9th will include a barbecue, disco and young farmers' tug-of-war.

■ CARRYING THE CROSS: A congregation of about 50 marked Good Friday by following the cross through Axminster. Starting at Tesco, the cross was carried up Anchor Hill and into the Minster Green, stopping on the way for readings and song. The event was organised by Axminster Churches Together and parishioners and clergy from churches across the area took part

SEATON

St Clare's cash plan

FOLLOWING a town meeting and referendum on St Clare's adult education centre in the town, Seaton Town Council is now putting together a business plan to see if buying the site is viable.

According to the council, over 900 responses were received in support of purchasing St Clare's but as yet no-one has approached the council to say they would actually use the facilities.

COLYFORD

Crossing postponed

FOLLOWING objections from Colyford residents, Devon County Council has decided to postpone the start of work on a toucan crossing.

Ros Mills, public rights of way officer, said: "The county council has decided to postpone the start of the toucan installation works from mid April to mid June 2012 to allow officers to clarify the confusion and any resulting queries.

From the editor's chair A new beginning...

WELCOME to your new-look Pulman's View. It's good to be back in the editor's chair of a newspaper that carries the Pulman's title.

Over the next 62 pages you will find more local content, new features, a brilliant View 2 leisure and entertainment section, unrivalled sports coverage and a few old favourites, such as Tony Jackson's Country Scene column.

In the coming weeks we will continue to develop the content in our six town editions to produce the complete local newspaper for East Devon with concentration on community news.

The idea of this page 3 slot is for me, or one of our other senior editors, to guide you through our columns.

Page 2 each week will be devoted to information and content, flagging up the main features, whilst page 3 will always contain a a matrix of stories from the major towns in East Devon. This will enable the reader to see what's happening throughout the district and not just in their own town.

This will be followed by dedicated pages for each of our town editions - Axminster, Seaton and Colyton with change pages for Honiton, Sidmouth and Ottery St Mary.

There will also be a round-up of village news and readers will be able to have their say on our Your View page. We plan to build on our coverage of club and society news and one of our readers will be featured every week in a 60 Seconds interview.

Oh, and I will be sounding off in my Editor At Large column. Welcome aboard!

OTTERY St MARY

Objections to quarry

OTTERY St Mary Town Council objected to proposals for a quarry at Straitgate Farm during a packed public meeting held at the football club.

Following a presentation by Devon County Council's minerals and waste policy officer, Andy Hill, and comments from some of the 130 local resident attending, Ottery Town Council resolved that they would object to the proposed Straitgate Farm site.

COLYTON

Church window

THE EFFORTS and generosity of the Colyton community in restoring the West Window of St Andrew's Church have been permanently recognised with a memorial plaque.

An appeal to restore the grand window was launched in 2007. The window was originally constructed in the 15th century measuring 19 by 30 feet, surpassing the grandeur and size of any in the South West, which reflected Colyton's position of fourth wealthiest town in Devon at the time. It is among the most significant windows of any parish church in England.

Community centre fundraising launch

SUPPORTERS gathered at the Mackarness Hall in Honiton to celebrate plans for the town's community complex finally gaining the green light from district council planners, after a 25 year battle.

Organised by a group of supporters, the celebratory event also saw the official launch of a fundraising campaign, which aims to raise £100,000 towards the cost of building the Beehive Community Complex at the Dowell Street car park.

The Beehive Bazaar also saw the launch of the group's biggest fundraiser, a draw with 100 prizes.

Attending the event was the Mayor of Honiton, Councillor Vernon Whitlock, who was joined by town councillors, former mayors, community groups and organisations who all came out in force to support the cause.

Councillor Whitlock said: "The community complex has been talked about for the last 25 years. We have spent a long time battling for funding and planning permission. Now we have planning permission it's a case of getting funding in place."

SIDMOUTH

Water taxi plan

PLANS for a pilot water taxi along the Jurassic Coast will be aired at a meeting of town council officials from across East Devon.

The meeting is being held to discuss proposals for a water taxi linking Seaton and Sidmouth with other towns along the coast.

Proposals will be discussed at the meeting of the East Devon and West Dorset Waterborne Transport Working Group scheduled for April 19th.

The vessel initially earmarked for this service in a Jurassic Coast Partnership report would be able to carry up to 70 passengers.

Pulman's View owners acquire nine title in Dorset and Somerset

NINE community newspapers in Dorset and Somerset have a new owner in Tindle Newspapers, which already publishes more than 200 titles.

Tindle have also taken over the Lyme Media group of Weekender titles in Crewkerne, Chard and Ilminster, where Tindle has no free newspapers.

The titles will be published by Devon, Dorset and Somerset Series of Newspapers Ltd, a subsidiary of Tindle Newspapers Limited, publishers of the Pulman's View From titles in Axminster.

Philip Evans, founder of the View From titles, has been appointed managing director, and will continue to run the operation from the Lyme Regis offices together with Tindle's Axminster-based newspapers in East Devon.

All full-time staff at the two centres in Axminster and Lyme Regis will be retained with no job losses.

The combined group will have a total of 15 titles in West Dorset, East Devon and South Somerset with a combined weekly distribution of 46,000 copies, making it a significant player in West Country publishing.

Sir Ray Tindle, chairman of Tindle Newspapers Limited, said: "We are delighted to add the View From titles to our expanding group of community newspapers. They fit perfectly with our ethos of hyper-local publications and have a strong readership and loyal advertising base upon which we hope to build."

Jerry Ramsdale, managing director of Lyme Media & Events Ltd, said: "I am glad that I will be connected with the View From in the future as a director of the publishing company. I have thoroughly enjoyed my time in local publishing and it makes sense in the current difficult financial climate to bring all the titles in the area under one group."

"I would like to pay tribute to the View From staff for their commitment over the past two years. They are a very talented team. I would also like to thank the advertisers and hope they will continue to support the same continuing team together with Pulman's staff."

District borrows £84m to run its own homes

THE LAST week of March saw a landmark day for social housing in East Devon, as EDDC borrowed £84.4 million in a switch to self-financing as part of the Localism Act.

Meanwhile, the Council is celebrating an enviable rate of rent collection from its tenants – over 99% average over the past 12 months.

The £84.4 million was immediately paid to the Treasury – the price of enjoying the future freedoms and flexibilities from central government control of our housing landlord services. The loan replaces the subsidy paid to Government each year.

Improvements

EDDC is borrowing the money over varying periods from the Public Works Loans Board with an average interest rate of 2.99 per cent, which includes a self-financing discount of 0.85 per cent. The Council aims to pay the loans back as soon as possible, whilst ensuring that it has sufficient funding to run an excellent landlord service.

Because of the differential between income and spending, EDDC hopes to be able to pump over half a million pounds into new social housing in the district in the coming year. The council is working out how these differentials will work out over the 30-year period of the loan so that it can continue to invest significant amounts of savings into providing more social housing and in improvements to the current council housing stock.

John Golding, EDDC's Head of Housing, said: "It is an exciting development and should lead to significant improvements in the services we can give to our tenants. Over the coming years, we will be able to invest more money in new kitchens, doors, and heating systems, as well as initiatives to provide affordable warmth and energy efficiency in tenants' homes."

"We will also be funding more disabled adaptations, sheltered housing upgrades, and car parking improvements. We will also be investigating building more new council homes".

This has been made possible by changes to the way the Government treats Local Authorities with housing stock. Finance for council landlord services has always been separate from the Council's general fund (Council Tax) activities. Up to now, East Devon District Council's Housing Service was viewed by central government as having more than enough income to meet its expenditure needs – and so EDDC had to make a subsidy payment each year. Under the new legislation EDDC has to buy itself out of the subsidy system by taking on the £84 million loan.

Modernisation

John Golding again: "The reason we will be able to make improvements to the service is that the loan repayment is less than the Government subsidy payment would have been. So for 2012/13 our £6 million subsidy payment is replaced by a £3.3 million payment of interest and principal. Of the remaining £2.7 million, we will use £2 million towards modernisation and accelerating our plans for increasing the housing stock. We anticipate that the full amount of the loan will be repaid by 2038.

Councillor Miss Jill Elson, EDDC's Cabinet Member for Sustainable Homes and Communities, said: "Although we now have a high level of debt, these are exciting times and present us with an opportunity to undertake the small backlog of modernisation and improvement to our tenants' homes, do more new build and property/land acquisitions, and generally improve our housing services for customers."

"I'm also delighted that our tenants and housing officers together can take the credit for a really high percentage of collecting rent payments during 2011-12. The end-of-year calculations show that we are averaging a 99.65% collection rate in East Devon, which must be one of the highest in the country. This is truly impressive in these difficult times. Well done to all concerned!"

Special status for health food shops

A LOCAL group of health food stores has been granted specialist status for their customer service and commitment to natural health foods.

Ganesha health food stores in Axminster, Honiton and Sidmouth were recently awarded the Alfred Vogel Specialist Store status (AVS), a prestigious accolade in the world of health foods.

AVS status recognises that Ganesha is a store that offers a service and lifestyle choice compatible with the values and principles of the late Swiss naturopath Alfred Vogel.

The Ganesha group has been run by Richard Eaton since 2001 and operates according to the Alfred Vogel's naturalistic principles to provide enticing and wholesome food remedies.

Mr Eaton said: "We were so thrilled to be recognised in this way. We strive to provide the best service for our local communities with an excellent selection of healthy foods and remedies."

"We ensure our knowledge and advice is enhanced by continual professional development and we will be one of the first retailers to be undertaking the latest training course provided by the Alfred Vogel training institute."

■ SIMON and Jean Byworth in India

FOUNDED by a Rolls-Royce engineer and his wife, a charity supporting poor people in India shows no sign of slowing down as it approaches its 20th birthday.

On the contrary, the yearly fundraising has risen from about £1,000 in the early days to about £50,000 today.

Retired Axminster residents Simon and Jean Byworth founded Phoenix India thanks to a chain of events started in 1988.

The story has been told more than once before in Pulman's, but the couple's continued success warrants another telling.

Simon, then an engineering director with Rolls-Royce, and Jean lived in Derbyshire in 1988.

They decided to travel to Bangladesh to visit their daughter Christine, who was a missionary there.

At the time, Simon and Jean worshipped at a church in Derbyshire, which had made a donation to a project in Nagpur, India, without receiving acknowledgment.

As they would be in that part of the world anyway, the Byworths were asked

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

if they could visit Nagpur and check if the donation had arrived.

Simon said: "The communications weren't so good then. We said yes but found out it was 1,000 miles away, not exactly next door to where we were in Bangladesh."

But the mission was completed and the money had indeed arrived.

It is unclear why there had been no acknowledgment, but it is possible someone had retrieved the letter from the postbox and removed the stamp.

One stamp was a day's wages, so it was unwise to use a post box instead of going to a post office.

The visit to Nagpur, a city in central India, changed their lives.

In Nagpur they met the Reverend Karim David, who helped poor and under-privileged people there.

The Byworths were inspired by the work, sent a private donation when they returned to the UK and became regular visitors.

A report in Pulman's Weekly News on September 17th, 1999, explained: "Mr Byworth, changed by the experience, returned to England and asked Rolls-Royce for early retirement. Instead, he was promoted and moved to a job with more responsibility in Bristol."

"But the company promised to release him after he'd completed his task there and later successfully nominated him for an OBE."

In the same report, Mr Byworth was quoted as saying: "My somewhat academic concern for the poor altered. I thought, God has been good to me and given me a good brain and a good job. Now I want to put something back."

One thing led to another and they set up Phoenix India in 1994.

Today Simon and Jean are life-presidents of the charity. They have made several trips to India and communications have steadily improved, which means the Byworths are in touch with Nagpur on a weekly basis through email and Skype.

A sponsorship network of individuals and churches in the UK has been established, bringing in a total of about £50,000.

External project funds are also sought on a regular basis.

Mr Byworth explained: "We couldn't do a great deal without forming a charity because you can't attract funds in the same way."

How will the charity develop over next five-year period? Is it a case of consolidating or are there other plans ahead?

Mr Byworth said: "The financial growth hasn't levelled off yet, and we have to make sure it doesn't level off."

WI join bottled water boycott

■ TO mark World Water Day on Thursday, March 22nd, members of Beer Women's Institute joined a national campaign to try to reduce the huge amount of bottled water consumed in this country. The ladies were in the town square in Seaton on Thursday, distributing refillable bottles that people can use to drink their own tap water. WI members Ann Robinson, Dee Spence-Thomas and Jean Davies are pictured handing out the free, refillable bottles.

St Clare's cash plan

FOLLOWING a town meeting and referendum on St Clare's adult education centre in the town, Seaton Town Council is now putting together a business plan to see if buying the site is viable.

According to the council, over 900 responses were received in support of purchasing St Clare's but as yet no-one has approached the council to say they would actually use the facilities.

The proposal for St Clare's will encompass youth provision with specialist arts and media facilities to include a recording studio, film making and photographic studios.

A spokesman for the council said: "The town council is ready to hear from anyone in the area who would be interested in making use of the facilities that St Clare's has to offer. These include a number of small meeting rooms, craft rooms, a pottery workshop and kiln, a hall and the outdoor space.

"Hire charges have not yet been set but are likely to be in line with other places in the town.

"The town council is keen to ensure that St Clare's does not take any activities away from these other providers but is looking for new activities."

Anyone who feels they have something to offer, or is a member of a group looking for somewhere to meet, should contact the council on 01297 21388, townclerk@seaton.gov.uk or by calling into the town hall, which is open 9am to noon from Monday to Thursday.

Pedallers off to France

A GROUP of cyclists from the Axe Valley Pedallers group visited St Malo for their annual French tour.

After a birthday party for one of the group members, the 12 cyclists crossed the Channel from Ports-mouth and enjoyed a leisurely ride before a traditional French breakfast.

They then cycled on to the barrage of the River Rance, an impressive hydro-electric dam which crosses the tidal estuary. Following quiet roads, the group headed south enjoying estuary views, and then west to the picturesque town of Pierituit.

After veering north to the coastal village of St Lunaire, where the group tucked into lunch on the beach, the cyclists headed back east toward St Malo via Dinard, choosing to carry their bikes up steps to a wooded off-road track for the final stretch.

In St Malo, there was just enough time to explore the streets, views and cafes before boarding their return crossing to Portsmouth.

Imagine the peace of mind you'll feel knowing that your loved one is getting the best possible care in a loving and understanding environment. Located in the delightful seaside town of Exmouth, Rose Lodge is the perfect place for people living with Dementia to experience the highest quality of life.

Caring for someone with dementia yourself can be tiring and often very distressing. Coping with someone whom you may have known and loved for years but who may now often fail to recognise you can be desperately upsetting and difficult to deal with.

Rose Lodge is an active and social home. We have found that people with dementia are generally happier when they are supported to be as active and independent as possible. Our weekly activities programme includes gardening, live music, drama, singing, crafts, a pub quiz, rambling, art, and trips out, as well as individual occupational activities.

So, moving into a home like Rose Lodge is the perfect way for you to give your loved one the best quality of life. In our 2011 relatives survey, all relatives agreed that Rose Lodge offers an excellent quality of care and that their loved one's wellbeing has improved significantly since they joined Rose Lodge. All of them said they would recommend Rose Lodge to their friends.

Tesco pledges support to Seaton In Bloom

THE new Seaton in Bloom committee received a cash boost this week, when the Tesco store on Harbour Road pledged its support.

Chairman Val Christmas, along with other committee members and supporters, Gaynor Sedgwick, Tony Le Rich, Marie Prideaux and Craig Nation, received the £400 donation from the Tesco Services Manager, Jackie Gay.

Due to be judged around June and July, the Seaton entry into the South West in Bloom competition has already gained support from many other local businesses and clubs.

By Laura Goldsbury Noy
laura@pemediia.co.uk

The chairman is delighted with the response so far but is keen to hear from anyone else who would like to give financial or physical help.

She said: "The purpose of the project is to enhance the appearance of the town with flower arrangements and displays.

"It also promotes community spirit, bringing people together with a shared goal. The final details are yet to be confirmed but we are hoping to use the additional money from Tesco to decorate the new public realm area near the Tesco store and areas along the Harbour Road."

Mrs Gay, from Tesco, added: "The Seaton in Bloom competition will enhance the look of the town throughout the summer and we are delighted to be able to support the committee this year."

Anyone who would like more information about the project or is able to assist in any way should contact Val Christmas on: 01297 20501.

Seaton panto celebrate success

THE cast and crew of this year's Seaton pantomime - 'Dick Whittington' - have been celebrating after a successful production.

The show received an array of good reviews and a sell out week of performances earlier this year, even making a profit during difficult financial times.

The all singing and dancing panto group range from members aged as young as eight to more senior members in their 80s, and this year was one of their biggest shows so far.

As part of the celebrations, the pantomime society donated £600 to the town hall lighting from this year's show proceeds.

Sound and lighting expert, Paul Hotchkiss, puts many hours into working with the lighting system, volunteering at the town hall, and needed to replace the old equipment with more efficient LED lights.

At a cost of £300 each, Seaton Pantomime's donation has provided two of the four lights needed to improve the gateway's lighting equipment.

Producer of this year's production, Mary Bowles told the Weekender: "We benefited greatly from Paul's fabulous lighting effects during our panto this year and these new lights will benefit all users of the hall.

"We are a true amateur group, no one gets paid financially and a great team put in lots of voluntary hours to get this result. With no membership fees to join the group, no one is exempt and anyone wanting to be involved either on stage or off stage is welcomed and appreciated.

"We are proud to give back to the community as a thank you for their support!"

Irresponsible young people need to learn to 'grow up'

■ MY disbelief was so great that I had to re-read Mike Jones's letter (March 13th) several times over.

That he regards public drug-taking, littering car parks with undesirable debris, speeding through the streets and anti-social behaviour as simply young people having fun and "just growing up" is beyond my comprehension.

Perhaps he would like to experience the sound of roaring engines as they break the speed limit through the streets of Axminster most evenings.

Or perhaps these activities were the norm in his youth and he feels more at ease knowing that this still goes on in town centres after dark.

Well, it wasn't the norm in my youth near London nor is it the sort of behaviour that the majority of the people of Axminster can support.

Young people need to learn about responsible behaviour as part of growing up if they are to be accepted as "the next generation of locals" in our community, and before someone gets seriously harmed.

I hope Mr Jones has a reality check before writing to you again.

Thankfully, it looks as though the police have taken some action, although I suspect the problem has been moved on and will return some time.

If this fire was arson somebody needs help

■ I HAVE only recently moved to Seaton and have been so fortunate to find a home at Cliff Castle looking over the sea and with views along to Haven Cliff and Beer Head.

My grand-daughter asked if it was going to be my "Forever Home" and without hesitation I said "YES!"

As a retired person, it has been easy to find friendly groups to join and I have been met with kindness everywhere.

Imagine then my distress when just after midnight on Friday, March 30th (which happened to be my birthday), I was woken by flashing blue lights, three fire tenders and eventually more than 20 fire personnel responding to the smoke and flames billowing from the little thatched shelter just over the road.

I haven't yet had time to research its age but have been told it's a listed building. It certainly features in one of Ted Gosling's photos of 1925.

As the three lads sitting on the bench up the hill early the next morning told me: "It's a real shame. The old people liked to stop there after puffing up the hill from the town."

Yes, and it was a popular meeting place for young people of an evening, as witnessed by the empty cans and cigarette ends.

But according to a council worker who came to clean up the debris of burnt straw, wire and ash, it was not a random cigarette end that did the damage, but an act of arson.

Straw is waterproof and it would have had to have been "torched" from deep inside the roof.

I lived in Brighton for many years and have seen some of the work that is done there with disaffected young people to help them have ownership of their space and respect for other people's property.

As a newcomer, I'd like to know what is being done for young people in and around Seaton. I have read recently of the organisation at Embercombe, not far from Exeter, which has a variety of programmes that might be of interest.

See www.embercombe.co.uk and I would be willing to do what I can in discussion groups to find ways to avoid such tragedies re-occurring.

STAR LETTER

Not much of a greeting to visitors

YOUR large front page photo (March 27th) of people wearing cleaners' tabards certainly caught my eye.

Then I read that this is to be the "uniform" for Seaton's new greeters.

Come on! Seaton could benefit from greeters, and these people are willing to give up their time to help our town. That is excellent.

But surely we can do better than cleaners' tabards!

Smart jackets, printed sweatshirts, even a sash or a large badge would look smarter and more professional.

If the job is to be done, let's do it properly!

Democracy? Not likely

■ ALL it takes to waste £3,000 of Honiton residents' money is for six townsfolk who oppose the planned community centre to call for a town meeting and then for 10 people at the meeting to vote for a town poll.

This anti-campaign by a small number of residents has already cost £2,000 spent on a poll last year but now they want to spend more of our money.

They then have the gall to claim the centre is short of financial support. Spot the connection!

It is a disgrace that Honiton does not have such a building.

Most of those at the town meeting supported the Beehive Centre and voted against the poll but in the crazy world of town polls even a majority of 1,000 can be out-voted by 10. So the anti-faction got their way.

They were supported by Councillor Mike Allen, who spoke up in favour of democracy.

Yet Mr Allen voted to overturn this democratic process by supporting a system in which 0.13 per cent of Honiton voters out-vote the rest. Democracy Mr Allen?

My eye!

If the returning officer decides the poll should take place, I for one will campaign vigorously to support the building of the Beehive Centre.

I invite all other supporters to get in touch with me either by email on wjohnburgess@hotmail.com or by texting to 07580095140.

Local singers appear in Rising Stars showcase

◆ ENTERTAINMENT EXTRA ◆

THREE young singers from East Devon have been given the chance to perform on stage thanks to a local music producer.

The singers from Seaton and Honiton took to the stage in Exeter as part of a Rising Stars Showcase organised by Tony Lock of One Umbrella Music, based in Ottery St Mary.

Sophie O'Connell, 25, from Seaton, Greg McCollum, 25, from Honiton and Sophie Loud, 18, from Seaton, all met Tony through his karaoke nights at The Orange Tree in Honiton and at the Royal Clarence, Seaton, and all mentioned how they would like to get some more gig experience but were unsure how to go about it.

The Rising Stars Showcase was formed by Tony with help from Hannah Wood at Vocal Arts. It was the first in a series of gigs being staged around the area to give experience to young artists to help them improve their performance and confidence.

The next showcase will be held May 18th. There are still a couple of slots available to young performers.

Speaking about the first showcase, Tony said: "The standard was very high. It just goes to show what fantastic talent we have in the area and that combined with hard work many could go far in the music business if they chose to."

Tony, a former musician himself, works with young performers at his recording studio in Ottery St Mary, where he helps develop their skills and performance techniques.

Tony has also arranged for some of his performers to sing live in Venues in East Devon including the Orange Tree in Honiton on Sunday, April 15th from 7pm, and at the Royal Clarence in Seaton on Sunday, April 15th from 2pm.

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

JOHN Streeting, Axminster Rector, writes: "We are in the middle of the most important week of the year for Christians, and by the time this is published we will have celebrated the joy of Easter.

"Those 40 days of Lent can often feel a long, hard slog, but they are an important part of the discipline of being a Christian, and are not so much about what you give up, but what you take on.

"Although we now call it Good Friday, that first Friday must have been the darkest and bleakest of days, and without the advantages of hindsight, the first Easter Day must have been even bleaker as the followers of Jesus thought their leader's body had been stolen.

"However, we know that Easter is all about Jesus conquering death, which has been the great message of hope for all who have believed for the past 2,000 years.

"If you have been bereaved in recent times you will know how miserable life can seem at times. You may have lovely memories to look back on, which are a source of comfort, or you may have lost a loved one in tragic circumstances and can make no sense of what has happened."

To us all, the Christian message of Easter gives us the hope of being reunited with those we love in a world free of all pain and sorrow.

● This week sees a collection of changes for church treasurers and others involved in money matters.

Churches of all denominations are no doubt still digesting the recent Budget news affecting church finances and buildings especially.

On the latter, the Government has changed the VAT concessions on alterations to listed buildings, and the use of energy-saving materials on charitable buildings.

Church treasurers will be alerted to changes in tax relief on charitable gifts from April 2013.

There is some concern about the proposals and church members are advised to contact their MPs.

English Heritage has published a new edition of the guidance on New Work in Historic Places of Worship. The document provides advice on how to approach making changes to historic places of worship and sets out English Heritage's general views on the subject.

HONITON Lion, Bob Francis, spent 35 years in the IT business, working for BT and other companies around the world. Bob has lived and worked in the Netherlands, Sweden and Finland, where he met his wife. He moved back to Sweden for eight years before moving home to the UK in 1984.

Bob has been involved with the Lions from 1995 and joined the Honiton Lions in 2003.

He lives in Plymtree and spends at least 10 weeks in Finland each year. As well as the Lions, his other hobbies include meteorology and model railway engineering.

● WHAT do you like about Honiton?

Honiton has a real "town centre" and a history, which the people seem to be proud of, especially with its 13th century charter and charter day celebrations each year. You then have the variation of small independent shops, which allows you to purchase most items or even just visit and "walk around", especially on market days. On the other hand, it is also very well positioned when it comes to accessing Exeter or beyond, with good rail, road, bus links and Exeter Airport is very close. The town is far from being isolated. From a Lions Club perspective, when we are out on the streets, people are friendly and will talk to us.

● WHAT would you change about the town if you could?

I would like to see the town establish a "sponsored entrepreneur centre", maybe at Heathpark, for young people wanting to start new businesses.

While on the point of Heathpark, I would like to get the traders more involved with the town, it seems like a town outside the town – the two do not seem connect. It would be nice to connect Heathpark to Honiton town with a better transport system allowing people to "nip" in to town at lunch time and spend money locally with no parking problems. Maybe a nice new hotel out that way, serving business, the town and tourism, would be good. It would also be nice to have a youth club or an internet cafe where young people could meet. Maybe a cinema.

● WHY did you decide to get involved in the Lions?

I have always been involved with people businesswise, but I wanted to get involved with the local community, giving time not money. I wanted to work with other like-minded people having fun, raising money and being rewarded when you see a positive outcome. Last but not least, we do have a good social life as well!

● WHAT exactly do the Lions do?

They respond. If Honiton was hit by some form of incident, natural or accidental, Lions international promise to get $10,000 in to the Honiton Lions club and the town for emergency purchases within 48 hours. Much of the focus of Lions' international work is as a service club organisation, to raise money for worthy causes. All funds raised by Lions Clubs from the general public are used for charitable purposes, and administrative costs are kept strictly separate and paid for by members. Money raised for a club's charity account goes toward projects that benefit the local community of an individual club with a small part going towards regional and international projects.

● WHAT projects are the Lions in Honiton currently involved with?

Number one for this year is the Devon Free Wheelers (Blood Bikes) followed by Honiton Community College and assisting the special needs pupils. Also, requests from people, young and old, and educational establishments seeking our time, or to assist with funding, for a specific item are received regularly. Regionally we are supporting the Chestnut Appeal for Prostate Cancer in Plymouth.

● WHY do you think it is important to have groups like the lions?

Because we are all local people, raising money locally and giving it back to the community. The Lions have the ability to be very flexible, not raising money for any specific charity, but able to respond to any local request that in some cases could not be funded by a person or local services.

● WHAT has been your proudest achievement so far?

A personal one is that I was able to move to a non English speaking country, learn the language and hold down the job for nine years. The other was in the world of business, getting a small team of software engineers from Israel into Cairo, to work with Americans and Egyptians in creating local language software products.

● WHICH three famous people would you invite to a dinner party and why?

From business - Bill Gates to hear about how he really got started; from science - Stephen Hawkin, I could sit and listen to him talk for hours about his theoretical physics and cosmology; and from politics - Daniel Hannan, which might surprise some, but if you want a really interesting and stimulating dinner party, Daniel Hannan can really hold his own.

Thelma spots first swallow

WELL, I've yet to see one, but reader Thelma Collier says she spotted a swallow flying near the river near Colyton on Friday, March 30th.

Doubtless, the first birds are assembling along the coast line before setting out for their nesting sites. Last year we entertained only two pairs, as opposed to the four pairs the previous year, but hopefully this summer will see an increase in the number of nests in the barn.

There has been a plentiful supply of insect life during the recent warm spell, but I rather suspect the current cold snap will have come as a shock to birds and insects alike.

Suddenly, the countryside is greening and the hedgerows are splashed with the white flowers of the blackthorn.

Here, judging by the swathes of white, we should be in line for a plentiful sloe gin harvest later in the year.

Young rabbits are popping up on all sides and the garden birds are now in full nesting mode. A pair of blackbirds has built a nest in the centre of a bay tree by the kitchen, while a pigeon pair is assembling a flimsy twig-nest in the apple tree.

Meanwhile, the new pond is suddenly beginning to come alive. Five little rudd dash round and in and out of the new oxygenating plants and an uncountable number of smooth newts have returned to the water from their winter hibernation quarters.

Marginal plants have been put in place so that, by the end of the summer, the water will have begun to resemble its former natural appearance.

If you've gasped in awe at the incredible BBC natural history programmes you now have a chance to obtain tuition from Tim Shepherd, a wildlife film-maker best known for his work on BBC's Life and Frozen Planet programmes.

Tim will be tutoring a wildlife film-making course on July 14th at the Devon Wildlife Trust's Marsland nature reserve in North Devon. It's a one-day course, aimed at beginners in wildlife filming and those who have their own video cameras and want to improve their techniques.

The day will be spent working in small groups, filming the wide diversity of wildlife on this beautiful reserve. Running from 10am to 5pm, with lunch provided, the course will cost £99 per person and participants are encouraged to bring their own cameras and tripods. The course is organised by Bristol Wildlife Film-makers for Devon Wildlife Trust. For more information call 01392 279244.

Meanwhile, if you'd like to discover more about the Fleet lagoon at the Chesil Bank Dorset WT nature reserve, boat trips being run from Easter will give visitors the chance to explore the largest saline lagoon in the UK, home to a variety of wildlife, including many rare species.

The boat used, the Fleet Observer, is shallow-drafted with a glass bottom and specially designed to explore this unique region of the Jurassic Coast.

The Fleet is home to 150 species of seaweed, some 30 species of fish, numerous shellfish and, of course, terns, waders and wildfowl.

One of the most interesting wetland sites in the country, the tranquillity of the lagoon on a warm, sunny day, the masses of flowering sea-pink and the unique views of the beach make this the perfect outing.

The Fleet Observer sails daily from Easter, weather permitting, and the cost is adults £7, children £4 and under-threes free.

To book visit www.thefleetobserver.co.uk or ring 01305 759692. In addition, the DWT's Fine Foundation Chesil Beach Centre open on July 21.

Is it fate or obsession?

I SPENT an enjoyable few hours in the company of Axminster councillor Mervyn Symes and his partner Jackie on Friday of last week when he was eager to learn about all the changes at Pulman's View.

We were attending the Lyme Regis civic night where Mervyn is a regular attender, not as a civic guest but as a ticket-paying member of the public.

It's always a pleasant evening and Mervyn, whom I've known for many years, usually brings me up to date with all the gossip from over the Devon border.

Merv expressed the view that my appointment as managing director of the company which publishes the Pulman's View series in East Devon means I am back where fate intended.

Merv is acutely aware that I spent a part of my early career working the Axminster and Lyme patch for Pulman's Weekly News and he offered the view that this was where my heart belonged.

It is true that I look back on my time as a district reporter for Pulman's Weekly News with great affection and I have often been accused of being 'obsessed' with the title.

It is also true that I once tried to buy Pulman's when it was owned by Bristol United Press but I was beaten to it by Sir Ray Tindle, the owner of Tindle Newspapers Limited, the biggest publisher of independently owned newspaper in the UK and a passionate champion of the local press.

Sir Ray's involvement undoubtedly saved one of

EDITOR AT LARGE

Philip Evans

Devon's oldest newspapers and his ultimate acquisition of the View From titles launched in East Devon has protected many jobs in one of the most difficult financial climates for local newspapers.

Now all the View From titles in Devon and Dorset are back under one ownership and one publishing centre and I am, of course, delighted that I am back running a group of newspapers that includes Pulman's in its stable.

With more than 200 local newspapers under his control, Sir Ray has never faltered in his belief that truly local newspapers will always survive.

With that aim in mind we have brought together two talented and committed sets of staff in Axminster and Lyme Regis and have given the Pulman's View series in East Devon a fresh look with increased local content and more features plus a new edition for Sidmouth.

The Weekenders in East Devon have had to make way for the enlarged stable of View From papers, but they will continue to be published in South Somerset where they are very popular.

The combined group of Pulman's View in East Devon and West Dorset, and The Weekenders in South Somerset, now has 15 titles with a weekly distribution of more than 46,000 copies, which makes it a significant player in the West Country newspaper scene.

Merv and I also discussed the lack of any real cross-border rapport between Axminster and Lyme, sharing the view that there should be more contact between the councils in both towns.

Although separated by the county border, the two towns have much more in common than, say, Lyme and some of its West Dorset neighbours who were represented at the civic night, particularly Portland.

I also think it's a shame that Axminster does not hold a similar civic function.

I know Graham Godbeer considered doing so a few years ago when he was the Mayor of Axminster but for one reason or another it did not reach fruition.

These are not junkets for councillors. The Lyme civic night is self financing through ticket sales so there is no burden on the council taxpayers.

Axminster has a great deal of which to be proud and such civic functions provide the ideal opportunity to beat the drum.

Spruce-up the Guildhall

□ BACK in August, having spent a few days in Normandy, I wrote about how splendid the town hall at Axminster's twin town, Douvre de Deliverande, looked and then compared it with the tatty exterior of Axminster Guildhall.

I suggested that a few flower tubs or baskets would do the trick and that a coat of paint on the front door wouldn't go amiss.

Similar views were strongly expressed at the recent annual town meeting so hopefully the penny will drop.

Axminster Guildhall is one of the best public halls in East Devon. It's scruffy exterior does the town a disservice and it is hoped that town councillors, through the Guildhall Management Committee, will take the criticism from the public on board and do something about it.

BBC expert visits rail club

PAUL ATTERBURY, well-known for his BBC appearances, was the speaker at the March meeting of Thorncombe Rail Activities Club.

His talk, Exploring Britain's Lost Railways, visited many of the features that have disappeared from the scenery since the first great expansion in the 1840s.

The talk was wide-ranging in its scope and dwelt on aspects such as social history and architecture. Paul has done much research on the history of railways and revealed many interesting facts, such as his first book on railways being requested by the Automobile Association and the fact that some 3,000 miles of track had disappeared between 1920 and the Beeching era in the 1960s.

Paul reminded members that most people only now remember part one of Beeching's report, which dealt with the closure of uneconomic lines, and not part two, which recommended investment in extensive modernisation and technical improvement.

This second part seems to have been ignored and then forgotten by the Government.

Where lines have closed, the tell-tale signs can disappear surprisingly quickly.

Farmers reclaim the land for raising crops where they can and the plough can remove all traces within a few years.

The more massive infrastructure usually remains, however, and bridges and tunnels will often give clues to where the rails ran. Many of the lines have become cycle or walk routes, and can still be explored.

April's talk is by Richard Hood, and is entitled The Norfolk and Western Railway. This will be on Wednesday April 18th at 7.30pm in the village hall at Thorncombe.

■ EN FRANCAIS: Headteacher Clive Salmon and children from Musbury Primary School enjoy French food for French Day

CHILDREN from Musbury Primary School enjoyed a French-theme day in honour of visiting French students who had been working with them.

Musbury Primary was joined by French students Corentin and Noemie, who were visiting the area as part of an exchange with Colyton Grammar School, for two weeks.

To celebrate their last day, the children dressed in French outfits, learnt about the geography of France, learnt songs and how to count in French and tried traditional French food, including pate, brie and olives.

In the afternoon, the students took part in art activities including French flag making and looking at French Impressionist work.

■ CHEQUE MATES: Axe Yacht Club training officer, Eddie Burrows, presented a cheque of £110 to RNLI member Andy Truscott

Yacht club boosts RNLI funds

AXE Yacht Club members were given a few tips on how to stay safe when they launch for the new season, and presented a cheque as a thank you to two RNLI sea safety advisors.

Richard Finch and Andy Truscott, two of the RNLI's volunteer experts, attended the Axmouth-based yacht club's Sea Safety Day recently, offering advice to members as they prepared to launch.

Richard, from the RNLI's Lyme Regis branch, said: "The sort of questions we dealt with included what flares do we need, do I have the right means to call for help, and will my lifejacket work if I need it?"

After the event yacht club training officer Eddie Burrows presented a donation of £110 to Mr Truscott.

Membury remembers village-born 'hero'

MEMBURY-born "hero", Thomas Wakley, will be commemorated on the 150th anniversary of his death, May 16th.

Wakley (1795-1862) studied medicine and surgery at Guys and St Thomas' Hospitals in London before going on to founded the internationally-famous research journal, the Lancet.

He subsequently was elected Coroner for West Middlesex, influenced Charles Dickens at some of his inquests, and became MP for Finsbury, speaking for the Tolpuddle Martyrs in the House of Commons with his radical voice helping to obtain justice for their release.

On Sunday, May 20th at 2.30pm there will be a short service in Membury church to celebrate his life.

Throughout the day, Membury History Society will also hold an exhibition in Membury Village Hall called "Wakleyana", illustrating his life and times.

Everyone is welcome, especially Wakeleys, Wakleys, Waklies and Wackleys. The exhibition will be attended by David Sharp, retired Lancet journalist, who will present material and drafts of his new Lancet Biography of Thomas Wakley.

NOSTAGLIA THROUGH THE EYES OF PULMAN'S FOUNDER

DID YOU KNOW?

AXMOUTH | One of the most serious incidents to hit East Devon in living memory happened at 2 am on the morning of October 1st 1960.

Overnight three inches of rain fell bringing severe flooding to the village of Axmouth, lying close to the River Axe.

Many houses lost virtually all their downstairs belongings.

SEATON | The Regal Cinema opened in the Windsor Gardens in Seaton in 1938 and provided family entertainment until its closure in 1972.

The cinema, which had an upstairs tea lounge, was particularly popular during the years of World War Two but the explosion in the popularity of television finally put it out of business in 1972 when the cinema was demolished and the area turned into public gardens.

A centre worthy of Axminster's history

NEWs is expected soon about a start date for creating a heritage centre in the former factory in Silver Street where the first Axminster carpets were made by Thomas Whitty.

It promises to be one of Axminster's most exciting developments for many years.

The long term objective of the project is to create a heritage centre that represents the complete history of Axminster, with the manufacture of the carpet industry being a major focus.

It is hoped that the new centre will also house the Tourist Information Centre and Axminster's museum, both currently operating from the Old Courthouse, together with a cafeteria and conference area.

Of course, the carpet industry was well established in Axminster by the time Mr Pulman launched Pulman's Weekly News. Thomas Whitty established his factory in the 1700s with King George III visiting in 1789. Unfortunately, the factory burnt down in 1828 and the business never really from this set-back and went out of business a few years later.

It wasn't until 1937 that the late Harry Duffield revived the carpet making tradition in the town and put Axminster on the world map, the business now being run by his son, Simon, and grandson Josh.

With the expected opening of the heritage centre, Axminster museum will be moving from its present home in the Old Courthouse, another building which has featured strongly in the history of the town.

The site in Church Street was acquired not long after the launch of Pulman's Weekly News from a W. H. Bond for the princely sum of £225 and new buildings constructed to form a petty sessions house and police station with a strong rooms with accommodation over for the constables.

The ownership passed to the county council and was then purchased by Axminster

What worth the Bluebell Line today?

RAILWAYS were all the rage when Mr Pulman launched his newspaper in the mid 19th century

And nowhere in Pulman's Country was this new form of transport more popular than the Axminster to Lyme Regis line - known as the Bluebell Line. The branch line, of course, wound its way through Combyne and over the Cannington viaduct (still there) and across the Devon border in Uplyme before arriving at Lyme Regis station. During the summer months it brought hundreds of eager holidaymakers into the Dorset resort who then had to find their way down into town by pony and trap to find their lodgings.

The Bluebell Line

survived until the Beeching Axe in the mid 1960s when local dignitaries dressed in period costume for the very last journey.

What a boost the Bluebell Line would give to tourism today.

❑ IF you have an old photo, press cutting or snippet of information which you think will interest Mr Pulman, please send it to Pulman's View From, Unit 3, St Michael's Business Centre, Chrch Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset DT7 3DB or email philip@pemedi.co.uk All photographs will be returned.

Market memories...

FROM THE JIM ROWE COLLECTION | Local farmers gather at Axminster Cattle Market in 1957 for the annual Christmas Fatstock Show which always signalled the start of the Christmas celebrations for the farming community in and around Axminster. The photograph shows the winners displaying their champion beasts. Trophies were always presented at the annual Christmas Fatstock Show dinner in the Guildhall.

◆ This column is dedicated to the memory of George Pulman, founder of Pulman's Weekly News, first published in 1857, a forerunner to this newspaper, and author of Pulman's Book of The Axe.

Tale Valley Community Theatre perform next show at Leyhill

GOING to the theatre is a well understood routine but Tale Valley Community Theatre's latest production is far from routine. Set in Leyhill, a very old, large house in Payhembury Parish this site-specific production comprises separate, ten-minute scenes capturing the history of the house and what did happen or may have happened at Leyhill at seven points in its history. Each scene occurs in a different location in and around the house and adjacent buildings. The audience is split into seven groups, each led by a guide who ensures that only one group witnesses a scene at any one time. The actors and musicians therefore perform seven times a night – twenty-eight performances over the four-night run.

In 1349 we see Payhembury priest Master Peter on his deathbed as he suffers the final stages of the Black Death. In 1549 a Cornish Archer, badly wounded and fleeing from the Battle of Fenny Bridges – part of the Prayer Book Rebellion – takes refuge in the wagon house with unexpected outcomes. Following scenes from 1588 when England was under threat of Spanish invasion, 1608 when John Willoughby yearned for a son to inherit Leyhill and a hilarious mix up in 1800 when two local minor poets hope to meet Samuel Taylor Coleridge at Leyhill, we experience the heart rending state of women in 1916 who wait for news of their men folk fighting in the trenches. We also experience a scene from 2012 as workmen struggle to make computerised machine tools produce a complicated wooden component. Audience groups will also come across children from three eras who play and sing the games and songs of their times.

Most of the scenes are threaded with music and song and the evening ends with a spectacular finale, with Leyhill house as the backdrop, involving most of the eighty-five people engaged in making and presenting this very unusual theatrical experience.

Director, John Somers says of this play: "TVCT is known for its original work and 'Leyhill' takes this reputation into new dramatic territory. The scenes are based firmly on two years of research in the Somerset and Devon Record Offices. Some intriguing material was discovered and this research was the base on which the six playwrights developed the scenes.

As with 'Hollyhayes', last year's production staged in a barn and which told the story of friction and dissent in a farming family, tickets for Leyhill are expected to sell out before its first night, so booking is essential.

The ticket, which comprises a cleverly designed information pack which gives essential contextual information about each scene, will be delivered prior to your attendance so that you can gain knowledge which will enhance your experience of the performance.

Performances, taking place on April 18th, 19th, 20th and 21st, start at 7.00pm and a bar is open from 6.30pm and after the two-hour performance. Tickets can be booked from Paula Nelson by emailing paulafnelson@aol.com or calling 01404 841232.

THE STAGE IS SET | The impressive Leyhill house will be the setting for Tale Valley Community Theatre's next production

Blues for all tastes at Square and Compass

DAVE Saunders of Mojo Promotions once again brings some truly international acts to our area over the next few weeks and is anxious that advance tickets are booked to be sure you can get in! First off at the Square + Compass, nr Ilminster is Chris Jagger and his Acoustic Roots on Friday, April 13th.

Chris's career, unlike his brother has spanned many fields in the artistic spectrum, from clothes design and theatre to journalism. His first records were made during the 1970s for David Geffen of Asylum Records in Los Angeles and he toured the USA and the UK. He revitalised his song writing in the late 1980s when he worked in France as lyricist for producer Franck Langolf (Vanessa Paradis) and helped brother Mick out on the Rolling Stones acclaimed albums 'Dirty Work' and then later 'Steel Wheels.' Chris decided to then concentrate on his own material and the result was the critically acclaimed Sequel C.D. 'Atcha!' in 1994, a mix of Cajun style graced with Chris's individual brand of song writing with contributions from Dave Gilmour (Pink Floyd) and Dave Stewart (Eurythmics) and a touch of brother Mick on 'Stand Up for The Foot.'

'Act of Faith' released in 2005 on SPV, brought Chris and his music to a wider audience in Europe, Australia, Japan and Canada where he appeared at the Montreal Jazz Festival in 2007. Besides writing and touring Europe with his band, Chris has recently written and presented a three part series for BBC Radio on Alexis Korner, the pioneering blues musician and broadcaster.

He has also finished a film for Sky Arts on the blues in Austin Texas with guest contributions from some of the finest and most respected blues musicians including Muddy Waters pianist Pine Top Perkins, Hubert Sumlin who worked with Howlin' Wolf and guitarist Jimmy Vaughan.

His Acoustic Roots Trio with David Hatfield on bass and Elliot Mackrell on the fiddle have performed across the country for the past two years playing soulful and tuneful music mostly with Chris's own tunes but including a smattering of country, hillbilly and the Irish thrown in. They are happy to play for dancing or just listening to and the acoustic combination of guitar, double bass and fiddle together with their voices adds up to an evening to be enjoyed by all.

Sunday, April 22nd has a real coup for the Square! Savoy Brown featuring Kim Simmonds appear at their only South West gig, which in itself is one of only three the band are playing in the UK between flying from the USA and an extensive European tour. 'Legendary' ... 'a blues/rock institution' ... 'true innovators'. These are just a few of the ways Savoy Brown has been described over the past forty years by music critics and fans.

One of the earliest of British blues bands, Savoy Brown, with founder guitarist Kim Simmonds at the helm, helped launch the 1967 UK blues boom movement that brought blues music back to the USA invigorating the style forever. In the process, the band became part of the framework that launched the rock and roll music of the 1970s. Their influence now stretches into modern rock as we know it today.

After the successful run of the early to mid 70's, Kim moved operations to the USA where they are still based and continued making the kind of records he wanted to make with a succession of line-ups. Records as diverse as the acoustic blues 'Slow Train' to the hard-hitting 'Rock And Roll Warriors' appeared. All were eagerly accepted by the fans. Now touring to promote the band's new album 'Voodoo Moon' this date is bound to sell out - advance booking definitely advised.

From London's Soho night clubs in 1966 to headlining the world's most famous venues (Carnegie Hall, Fillmore's East and West, Cobo Hall, etc) Savoy Brown has done it all and as the band continues to tour worldwide they give a glimpse into the past and also inspire new listeners with their personal brand of rocking boogie blues and rock.

Phone the Square and Compass on 01823 480467 to book by credit card or visit in person to pick up your tickets, don't miss out!

With Atlanta Blues/Americana performer Bill Sheffield also touring the area in May, ex John Mayalls Bluesbreaker Buddy Whittington and guitar legend Andy Fairweather Low playing at the Square and Compass also in May there is something for everyone!

UNDER MILK WOOD REVISITED

SHUTE Theatre and Arts Guild (STAG) follows a long tradition of presenting original and challenging drama with its Spring Production of Under Milk Wood by Dylan Thomas at St Michael's Church, Shute, from Wednesday 11th to Saturday, April 14th.

Thomas's masterpiece about twenty-four hours in the life of an everyday town in South Wales was a long time in the writing. Described by the author as 'a play for voices', it was originally intended for radio with a narrator - only one, despite later editors - who linked the dialogue and set the scene. It was finally broadcast by the BBC in January 1954, three months after the author's death.

STAG will present a lively rendition of the play in the appropriately intimate surroundings of Shute Church. An experienced cast, including many familiar STAG actors, will bring the characters to life in a vivid and original interpretation of a well-loved piece which illustrates the life of so many small communities throughout our country. Tickets are on sale at STAG's usual Box Offices: Archway Bookshop, Axminster; Hurfords Stores, Kilmington; Strictly Business, Seaton; Haynes Hardware, Colyton, or through our website, www.shutetheatreandartsguild.org.uk

This will be Under Milk Wood as you never thought it could be - and you'll love it!

'Turned out nice again hasn't it?'

Former Sidmouth resident Ewan Wardrop plays George Formby in self-penned play

'FORMBY' follows George Formby's rise from awkward stable boy to one of Britain's biggest stars. In a unique one-man performance, Ewan Wardrop plays the legendary entertainer, as well as the key characters in a fascinating slice of his life.

Featuring many of George Formby's unique and hilarious songs, brilliantly recreated on the ukulele, this new play does not only celebrate one of Britain's greatest performers but is also a funny, touching and thoughtful look into the life of an essentially ordinary man with an extraordinary talent.

Ewan, who grew up in Sidmouth, is welcomed back to the Marine Theatre after his last visit with Shanty Theatre Company's 'Rebel Harbour'.

His previous credits include work with Matthew Bourne, Complicite and the Royal Opera House, so be sure to catch his fantastic show when it visits Lyme Regis.

Ewan will perform 'Formby' at the Marine Theatre daily until Saturday, April 14th, with performances at 8pm on Tuesday 10th and Friday 13th, 3pm and 8pm on Wednesday 11th and Saturday 14th, and 6pm on Thursday 12th.

Tickets cost £8.50/£6.50, or £26 for a family ticket (2 full price, 2 concessions), and LYT Members tickets cost £1.

New wave legends Squeeze to play Plymouth Pavilions

FOLLOWING their incredibly popular 2010 'Spot The Difference Tour' British legends Squeeze return to Plymouth Pavilions on Tuesday, November 20th 2012.

It's been over 35 years since Squeeze burst onto the music scene and are still as vital as they've ever been. As befits one of the UK's much-loved acts, there is no end of Squeeze fans currently wearing their influences firmly on their sleeve, whether it be Mark Ronson, Kasabian, Lily Allen or The Feeling. With their fingerprints keenly felt throughout the fabric of popular music, it is only right that these songs, with their evergreen and popular sound, continue to be played and enjoyed live. And so since 2007, the newly reformed Squeeze have been slowly finding time to play a series of gigs and festival dates, and this coming Winter they are about to embark on a 20+ show tour across the UK.

Since founders Chris Difford and Glenn Tilbrook reformed the band with Squeeze veteran John Bentley and Tilbrook's Fluffers cohorts Stephen Large and Simon Hanson the band has become an instant favourite on the festival circuit with appearances at V, Oxegen, T in the Park and Latitude – and this year take to the stage at the seminal US Festival Coachella.

Squeeze's contribution to music has been noted in 2010 with the site of their first gig being awarded a prestigious PRS For Music Heritage Plaque, which has so far commemorated the debuts of Blur and Dire Straits. It joins an ever-increasing list of Squeeze accolades alongside their recent Ivor Novello for Outstanding Contribution to British Music and their Nordoff-Robbins Icon Award., as well as the Mojo Magazine Icon Award. Chris Difford's lyrics and Glenn Tilbrook's music have survived everything over the years, from the ever-changing musical landscape to their own internal reshuffles and even an acrimonious breakup – but Squeeze is here to stay, still going strong and still loving every moment.

Tickets are on sale now and cost £45 & £32.50 (subject to a booking fee). To book tickets contact the Box Office on 0845 146 1460, or visit www.plymouthpavilions.com with 'print at home' ticketing.

Phil Wells Trophy winner chosen at Lyme Bay Photographic Club meeting

THE club competition for the evening on March 29th consisted of dpi/slide images for the Phil Wells Trophy, viewed and judged by Jenny Wallis.

Each year Jenny chooses a particular place for club members to visit and take photographs for the Phil Wells Trophy competition. The chosen venue for this year was Broadwindsor. Club members were asked to go in their own time and take ten views of their choice to display the life of a country village.

Lyme Bay photographers are extremely adept in their mission, several choosing to take all the photographs in one visit, while others decided to take them over a period of time.

The lovely old church with its fascinating gravestones in the cemetery sits right in the heart of the village and was featured well. Doorways, trees and flowers, door knockers and plaques, character cottages, ponies with riders and villagers were photographed by club members.

The winner of the competition was Mike Applegate with a remarkable set of images. Jenny commented on his skilful composition and unusual angles, beautiful skies and clouds, and his unique interpretation of village life in Broadwindsor.

Everyone agreed it had been a fascinating journey into this beautiful little village, and Mike Applegate was a worthy winner of the Phil Wells Trophy.

Our next meeting is Friday April 13th with two presentations 'Lyme Old and New'.

Honiton slimmers slim for summer and raise money for children

WITH over half of us saying we'd enjoy our summer holiday more if we were happier with our body* a local slimming expert has revealed that April is the perfect time to kick off those weight loss plans. Starting on 10th April, Sharon Grove, Slimming World Consultant in Honiton, is holding a sixweek 'Slimmer Summerthon' after a survey found that more than half of us spoil our summer holidays before we've even packed our bikinis because we're self-conscious and worried about wearing a swimming costume in public or getting into the pool in front of others. Statistics show that over half of us will try to lose weight for the big summer holiday this year but somehow the motivation flags and we end up disappointedly packing the same supersize shorts as last year.

Slimmers who join the campaign are being encouraged to get sponsored to lose weight and, for the duration of the six weeks, Slimming world will donate £1/1€ for every 1lb group members lose as part of the slimathon - with all funds going to the NSPCC.

Sharon is inviting slimmers to bring friends and family along and get together to kick start their weight loss in time for sunnier weather. "We're encouraging people to get sponsored because we know that commitment and motivation are super-boosted once you go public with your intentions," says Sharon. "That's why we've come up with a SlimmerSummerthon. It will run for six weeks starting from 10th April. We're asking members to tell us where they'd like to be in six weeks' time and, whether that's half a stone lighter or a lot more confident, we'll be working together as a group to give them all the support they need to get there. It's possible to lose a stone or more over six weeks. So this summer we won't need to get to the beach feeling like we need to hide in the shade - we'll have all the confidence and motivation we need to get summer off to a great start!

"And with the added incentive of raising money for such a good cause we're hoping that the campaign will help to give people in Honiton who would like to lose weight for summer the extra motivation they need to make a fresh start. Slimming World's great Food Optimising eating plan really is Extra Easy and members loseweight easily without ever going hungry. They still enjoy all their favourite meals (spaghetti bolognese, fish and chips, curry - you name it), all based on hearty healthy Slimming World recipes. Then each week in group we share more great food ideas and spur each other on for the next week. We've also got loads of ideas about how to get more active without having to pull on any Lycra or pay a fortune in gym fees. However much weight you have to lose you can make a big difference in six weeks by making long lasting changes that will transform your body, your health and your whole outlook and by raising money for the NSPCC by getting sponsored."

The Honiton Slimming World groups meet every Tuesday at 5.30pm and 7.30pm and every Wednesday at 9.30am and 11.30am at the Honiton Baptist Church Hall. Anyone who would like more information on the Slimmer Summerthon can call Sharon on 0140441513 or 07963337178.

Taster opportunities in Dance and Theatre for adults and children

DO YOU enjoy performing or would like to have a go? On April 12th and 13th, you can take part in some taster sessions and workshops in Axmouth.

Sara Perry, founder and creator of 'Confi-dance', is running a two day event to encourage adults and children to observe or be participants in some of the classes. This is an excellent opportunity for would be new members to sign up for new programmes in 2012.

On April 12th, along with general classes in Streetdance and Theatre, Sara will be showcasing a new exercise class called 'Streetz Fit', a new and exciting way to exercise and a way to make dance part of your fitness regime, get fit, listen to groovy sounds, socialise and meet new people. 'Streetz Tap' will let individuals learn to tap dance with a street style rhythm. Please note that classes are suitable for all abilities.

On April 13th, Sara is hosting a day dance workshop where participants will learn different skills and put together a creative choreographical piece to be performed later that day.

Confi-dance has been running for over five years and is a community family focused programme aiming to provide a service which is affordably accessible to everyone. As well as weekly classes in theatre and dance, participants get the chance to go on arranged theatre trips, excursions to dance expo's and summer camps to help with further development and learning in the profession.

Sara Perry, professional entertainer and founder of Confi-dance and Strictly Streetz, has worked in Europe, London's West End and television and has recently taken classes and trained with some of the top experts in Streetdance including Alex Mechanikool (Diversity's mentor) Chris & Wes, and Lady Venus from 'The Waacktioners'.

Sara says "We always pride ourselves on quality not quantity and over the years Confidance has proven to develop and support children and adults with low self esteem, learning difficulties and those from troubled backgrounds. Confi-dance's unique selling point is that it runs small classes so that the children's individual needs are catered for, and they gain the most from their experience with us. Classes are designed to help individuals to learn new skills, develop their creativity and imagination, build confidence and to release inhibitions."

So if you want to learn more about Confi-dance, join in some taster sessions and have an excellent day out, get yourself down to check out the website at www.confidanceworld.com or by call 01297 23474 or 07939946780.

Gypsy Watkins' 'Purple Album'

Track Listing

- 1 - Time to Say Goodbye
- 2 - I Wanna Be Alone (ORIGINAL)
- 3 - Pie Jesu
- 4 - The Rose
- 5 - Climb Every Mountain
- 6 - Amazing Grace
- 7 - Don't Cry For Me Argentina
- 8 - You Don't Have To Say You Love Me
- 9 - This Isn't Goodbye (ORIGINAL)
- 10 - Gypsy In Purple (ORIGINAL)

Every bit the show tune, Gypsy's operatic vocal warbling combines with the show-band musical backing perfectly, and would not be out of place in any stage production of the classic show.

The second half of the album begins with Gypsy delivering a fantastic acapella rendition of 'Amazing Grace', John Newton's hymn so famous throughout the English speaking world. With little more than a small amount of natural reverberation from the space in which she was recording, Gypsy really gets the chance to showcase her strong vocals on this song, with fantastic clarity and subtle emotive delivery.

The penultimate cover on the Purple Album, 'Don't Cry For Me Argentina' is another opera show tune classic, ably and impressively sung by Gypsy. Featuring stirring vocals in perfect partnership with the dramatic musical backing, this another example of a performance which would blend seamlessly into the stage show.

The final cover of the album is the classic pop ballad 'You Don't Have To Say You Love Me', the 60s hit for Dusty Springfield. With a similar arrangement to Dusty's original, the song's natural rising dynamic fits to Gypsy's delivery.

The second original on the album, 'This Isn't Goodbye' features Gypsy's vocals at their best - soaring, operatic and emotion filled. The song's hope-filled and uplifting lyrics coupled with Gypsy's fantastic ability and a relatively simple piano arrangement makes for a beautiful ballad.

The album closes with 'Gypsy In Purple', the third original track of the album. The songs is a soulful pop tune, uplifting and cheerful, and tinged with country. A strong self-penned tune, and a great way to finish the album.

■ GYPSY Watkins will be in Concert at Kennaway House, Sidmouth later this month.

This is a fantastic chance to experience the hypnotising voice of Gypsy, who will be performing famous Opera arias, songs from the shows, popular power ballads and much more. You will also be able to buy a copy of the 'Purple Album'

Gypsy plays at Kennaway House on Saturday, April 21st, with doors opening at 7pm for 7.30pm start. Tickets cost £10.00 on the door or telephone 01395 515551 to book in advance.

'PURPLE Album' is the latest recording from the mesmerising and unique local singer Gypsy Watkins, featuring three original pieces, as well as a selection of well known covers.

The album begins with the classic opera piece 'Time To Say Goodbye', written by Francesco Artori and Lucio Quarantotto, and made famous by Andrea Bocelli and Sarah Brightman. Gypsy tackles the somewhat awkward vocal arrangement with great ease, reaching the songs highest notes perfectly, and giving a beautifully pronounced rendition of the Italian lyrics.

The album's first original song, 'I Wanna Be Alone' is an emotional pop ballad, focusing on the song's protagonist needing space. Backed by powerful piano, a subtle string arrangement and neatly layered acoustic guitar, the dynamic shifts before the later choruses as Gypsy's operatic backing vocals compliment the lead vocal, and a drum beat punches along, before the last bars strip back to vocals/piano again.

'Pie Jesu' takes the album back to opera, and is arranged as Andrew Lloyd Webber's famous version, as sung by the likes of Aled Jones and Katherine Jenkins. Gypsy delivers another strong vocal performance of the original Latin words, and is gently backed by tinkling piano and atmospheric synth.

'The Rose' is next up on the Purple Album, and sees the sound lean towards pop balladry once more. Gypsy stays with the arrangement of the Bette Midler song, Amanda McBroom written, original. Gypsy's elegant and understated delivery, coupled with the song's emotive lyrics give for a heartfelt beautiful piece.

The fifth track is 'Climb Every Mountain' from the Rodgers and Hammerstein musical 'The Sound of Music'.

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

Lindy Parry Chiropodist / Podiatrist

I have been running my private chiropody / podiatry clinics at Townsend House Surgery for over 3 years and due to demand I have recently increased my days, now holding clinics on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary. My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

Bookings can be made by calling 01297 22956.

David Light – Years of experience and passion for my profession

MY name is David Light, a driving instructor with years of experience and passion for my profession. I have taught to drive over 1,500 hundred people to pass their driving test and have clocked up more than a million miles (a few times to the moon and back). In that time I have experienced teaching in sixteen different cars, my present car is a Renault Clio 1.5 Diesel, it's a great car to drive, and my pupils love it.

Apart from teaching to drive, I have developed and designed instructors Teaching Aids. My latest is a communicator, which helps with the teaching of the deaf or hard of hearing. I know there must be people who are deaf or hard of hearing that would like to drive but cannot find someone to teach them. If you know of any person who may have this problem then why not contact me, I may be able to help them, you can telephone or email me.

I would love to hear from any Driving Instructors interested in my Teaching Aids.

Inflation-busting Ford engine means motorists pay less for fuel than four years ago

- Frugal Ford Focus 100PS 1.0-litre EcoBoost engine delivers lower petrol cost-per-mile than Focus drivers paid in 2008, despite a 34 per cent rise in fuel prices
- Focus 1.0-litre EcoBoost's excellent fuel economy means it costs 10.8 pence per mile in petrol compared to 11.2 pence per mile in 2008 for the equivalent model

FORD is tackling soaring fuel prices with an economical new engine that helps motorists pay less per mile for petrol than they did four years ago.

Despite a 34 per cent increase in fuel prices in the past four years, the Ford Focus with the new 100PS 1.0-litre EcoBoost petrol engine delivers lower fuel costs than the 2008 Focus 100PS 1.6-litre petrol equivalent.

In January 2008, with petrol at 104.3p per litre, owners of the 100PS 1.6-litre Ford Focus five-door paid an average of 11.2p per mile in fuel costs. Fast forward to today, with unleaded prices at 140p per litre, and the 1.0-litre Ford Focus five-door costs 10.8p per mile in petrol – 0.4p per mile less.

The Focus 100PS 1.0-litre EcoBoost engine achieves 58.8mpg compared with 42.2mpg on the 2008 model, while delivering the same power and more torque.

"The Ford Focus 1.0-litre EcoBoost engine changes the economics of family motoring, delivering exceptional fuel economy from a petrol engine. It's a time machine which takes you back to the days of lower fuel costs, without compromising power or drivability," said Andy Barratt, Ford Britain sales director.

"Family budgets are under real pressure, and record petrol prices are the last thing that motorists need. When feeding the family or even posting a letter costs so much more, anything which helps to fight the rising cost of fuel is very welcome."

Ford's new EcoBoost petrol engine uses the latest technology – including advanced turbocharging and direct injection – to deliver the performance of a traditional 1.6-litre engine with the fuel economy of a 1.0-litre.

Fitted to the Ford Focus, the new engine takes fuel economy and CO2 emissions to new levels for a petrol family car, achieving up to 58.8mpg and 109g/km CO2 emissions, together with excellent performance and refinement.

In addition to the Focus, Ford's fuel-efficient new 1.0-litre EcoBoost engine will also be offered in the C-MAX and the all-new B-MAX later in 2012 before being rolled out to other models.

SOUTH WEST PENINSULA

Division One (East)

AXMINSTER Town moved off the bottom of the South West Peninsular League with a 3-1 victory over fellow strugglers Ottery St Mary at Washbrook Meadows on Good Friday.

Two goals from Matt Micklewaite, doubling his tally for the season, and one from Peter Knox, all scored in a first half dominated by the Tigers, gave Axminster their second victory of the season.

Ottery came back into the game strongly after the break but the Axminster defence held firm.

The Tigers have now jumped two points ahead of Ottery at the foot of the table but there is still a 19-point gap between them and their nearest rivals, Exeter Civil Service who Axminster meet on Monday followed by another away trip to fifth placed Alphington on Saturday, April 21st.

trick for WITHERIDGE 2NDS as they triumphed 4-0 at CULLOMPTON 2NDS, Lee Radford also scored.

SIDBURY UNITED and HEAVITREE 2NDS pocketed a useful point from a 0-0 draw.

CHARD TOWN 2NDS maintained their promotion drive from Division 2 after beating UPLOWMAN 3-1. Greg Channing (2) and Luke Finn scored.

TOPSHAM 2NDS 3-0 win at HALWILL means they stay in the hunt, Dale Joy, Ian Curran and Nick Bartlett sharing the goals, and SIDMOUTH 2NDS stepped up their challenge winning 5-3 at NEWTOWN 2NDS with Tom Perryman cracking four goals. Kev Dorman had the other one, and Paul Jackson notched a brace for the home side.

Callum Somers scored twice for COLYTON as they came from behind to win 3-1 against BROADCLYST whose Danny Willis scored their goal.

PINHOE and WESTEXE ROVERS drew 2-2, Daniels and Kevin Webb scoring for the pings, Gavin Richards and Tom Keaton for rovers.

COLATON RALEIGH made sure of promotion from Division 3 after an exciting 4-3 victory at TEDBURN ST MARY. Colatone were 2-1 up then 3-2 down but scored twice in the last ten minutes. Aaron baitup, Lee Goode and Lee Martin scored for the teds.

Leaders DAWLISH UNITED won 2-1 at SANDFORD with Jon Emery and Lance Clark scoring, and that was bettered slightly by BICKLEIGH who won 3-1 at UPTOTTERY whose Jack Reed scored their only goal.

■ THE final of the Axminster Hospital Cup will be held at Sector Lane for the last time on Sunday, April 29th.

Budleigh Salterton will meet Seaton Town in a 3pm kick-off in what is likely to be an emotional occasion.

Not only will it be the last time the trophy will be competed for at Sector Lane, with Axminster Town moving to a new ground in Chard Road, but the final will be dedicated to the memory of former Hospital Cup chairman and long-serving committee member, Martin Leach, who died recently.

"Leachy", as he was known to all, is described on the Axminster Town FC website as "a true ambassador to local sport and friend of all who knew him".

A minute's applause will be held in his honour before kick-off.

striker in their squad and with defender Lee Holt donning the goalkeeper's gloves.

Despite this and the fact that the Seasiders had already recorded comprehensive victories in the corresponding league clashes Pethy started brightly and, with the advantage of the slope, took an early lead when Lyme 'keeper Ashley Caddy could only half-stop a Paul Holt lobbed effort and the ball tickled over the line.

But the Seasiders were level three minutes later when Joel Gostling's in-swinging corner was chested into his own net by Danny Rendall.

The explosive start continued with Pethy defender James Cattigan desperately hacking a goal-bound effort off the line.

The Somerset side regained the lead in the 18th minute when an incisive through ball by skipper Lee Richards found its way to Jason Behan who, in an almost carbon-copy of the first goal, lifted the ball over Caddy who once again got a hand to the ball but couldn't keep it out.

Back came Lyme. Jason Hawker, who celebrated his 44th birthday earlier in the week, narrowly failed to mark the event when headed over after being picked out by Will Mowbray.

Pethy went close to extending their lead when makeshift front man Mark Tierney lashed a fierce drive that was well saved by Caddy at full stretch.

The scores were leveled in the 27th minute when defender Karl Diment hauled down Gostling.

At the other end Rendall went close to atoning for his own goal with a header that was hooked from under the crossbar by Bailey.

Lyme took the lead for the first time on the hour mark when Batey's long throw-in was flicked on by Hawker to Mowbray who bundled the ball in at the far post.

Ten minutes later a Seasiders breakaway ended with Hawker striking the post from the edge of the area following good work by strike partner Julien Simier.

Tempers frayed when Petherton player-manager Gordon Childs, coming off the field after treating an injury to 'keeper Holt, reacted to comments from a section of the crowd and grabbed a Lyme supporter by the throat.

Referee Simon Salter opted to show the yellow card to Childs, an unused substitute, when most of the 200+ crowd expected a red.

The Pethy challenge then fizzled out and Lyme cantored home in relative comfort.

football Sidmouth Town Weakened Sidmouth side beat Uni

SIDMOUTH Town played host to a University side that were two places below them in the league table on Saturday.

A severely weakened squad took to the pitch hoping to avenge a 2-0 defeat in the reverse fixture.

Without a recognised striker in the squad, due to the unavailability of leading scorer Andrew Thomson and strike partner Andy Isaac, it was left to the ever reliable Simon Hudson to lead the line.

Sidmouth started brightly on a difficult surface and were in control, when from losing the ball on the edge of the opposition's box the counter attacking Uni side struck with a low drive past Luke Ashford by Ben Nash their top scorer.

This unsettled the side and took them a while to regain their composure. Twice in quick succession Hudson had a couple of chances to draw Town level but couldn't find his usual finish.

Then from a deep long ball from Ashford, whose kicking was immaculate all game, Hudson climbed above the visitors' keeper to glance his header into the net and draw the sides level.

The second half was a scrappy affair with Sidmouth carving out the clearer chances but the Uni side were always looking dangerous on the break.

With the introduction of Jack Knight and Nathan Brace, Sidmouth were gradually turning the screw and it was no surprise when they took the lead on 75 minutes.

Hudson, dropping deep, received the ball some 40 yards out took a touch and drilled a right foot shot low to the keeper's left which he could only parry out to the ever alert Knight who was on it like a flash scoring from an acute angle to put the home side deservedly in front.

Town saw out the remaining 20 minutes and could of increased their lead with Adam Whitty going close as did Knight who flashed a half volley inches wide, but the game ended 2-1.

MANAGERS VIEW: The team spirit at this club is fantastic; the likes of Ashford, Tarr, Stamp, Thomson and Hudson have a deep affinity with the club that money can't buy.

With the addition of a few young lads that have shown they can play, the future is looking bright. Finally a word for Simon Hudson who again showed his quality with quick thinking compensating for slower legs!

Sidmouth as a club are very fortunate to have him on board.

rugby reports and preview

Honiton go down in cup clash

SIDMOUTH were without a game at first team level on Saturday last, and HONITON had disappeared on a tour of the Midlands.

There was a game on Wednesday evening at the Blackmore however when the clubs met to compete for the David Turner Cup, and I trotted off to watch that one.

SIDMOUTH 29 HONITON 8

THE first five minutes of this encounter were evenly contested and did, if nothing else, show that both sides were committed to the playing of open rugby.

At the end of this time, the home side, having settled the quicker, went on something of a scoring spree.

Honiton failed to deal with a high kick and, after winning a couple of subsequent rucks, the home side found themselves with an overlap on the right and Meadham got over some ten yards in from touch. Whelan added the extras and the home side led 7-0.

More was to come. Honiton were not defending as well or as wide as they should, and Sidmouth sent the ball wide, switched, and Cooper got over in the corner, although I felt that the move included something more than a hint of a knock on.

The try remained unconverted and no one could take issue with the quality of the home side's third. Centre Higgs scored it, running strongly to do so, to complete a move that had started way back in his side's half. Whelan converted this one also and Sidmouth led 19-0.

At this stage things looked a little bleak for the visitors but, all credit to them, they rolled up their sleeves and got back into the contest when, after several minutes of pressure, Ben Webber left his wing and ran a good angle to line to score halfway out.

The try remained unconverted and, although Honiton continued to give as good as they got for much of he remained of the half, it was Sidmouth who had the last word.

The ball came to Higgs on the visitors' twenty-two and he accelerated down the outside channel to score an unconverted try to give his side a 24-5 lead at the halfway stage.

At this juncture a heavy shower made the playing of open rugby very much more difficult and, although the visitors won the territorial battle by a significant margin during the second period, the home defence coped well.

Both sides did continue to put width on the ball however but, understandably, errors did creep in and the passing was not as accurate from either side.

Honiton did, I think, adapt to the conditions the better, but could not turn territorial pressure into points, with their only score coming around the hour mark when Channing kicked a penalty goal.

Sidmouth for their part, continued to absorb the pressure and, at the last, they broke away, chipped ahead, followed well and won the touch down race to score in the corner. The whistle for no side went soon after, bringing a very enjoyable game of rugby to an end.

While there is no doubt that Sidmouth certainly deserved to regain the David Turner trophy, I do think that Honiton contributed much more to this encounter than the final scoreline suggests.

Although promotion is not a nailed down certainly for them as yet, I do think that they will achieve it. They gave an indication also that, while they do need to tune various aspects of their game to enable them to compete at a higher level, they are capable of doing so.

PREVIEW

SIDMOUTH'S penultimate league game of the season takes place at CAMBORNE, and they will have to be at their very best if they are to return with the spoils.

True they defeated these opponents at the Blackmore earlier in the season, albeit narrowly, but their opponents are a rather stiffer proposition at the Recreation Ground.

Additionally Camborne have enjoyed a pretty good season overall and lie in the division's fourth place, but have no hopes of a promotion spot.

HONITON for their part, have a real tester with the visit of TEIGNMOUTH, a side who are just one place behind the Allhallows bunch in the Cornwall & Devon League, and who do have, mathematically speaking, an outside chance of pinching Honiton's promotion spot.

It was the South Devon side who came out on top when the clubs met earlier. (I believe that the score was 23-19).

I am sure that Honiton will be striving to get the two points that they need to ensure a promotion place as soon as possible, and not to leave it to the final game at Torrington.

I think that they might just do so, injuries permitting. It will be close however.

As to the second sides, Honiton seconds, who have enjoyed a pretty good season so far, take on Ivybridge seconds in a Merit Table clash, with this game also taking place at Allhallows.

They will not have things all their own way in this one however. As for the Sidmouth second and third sides, they take on their counterparts from Barnstaple, with the second side playing host, while the thirds travel.

WITH KEITH JENKIN

Both will be assured of very tough encounters at the hands of the North Devon club.

JAMES Chaney was the winner of the senior April handicap in a new PB of 32:34.

Janette Mack was 2nd, 3:44; Chris Driver 3rd, 24:25; Ian Clements 4th, 24:37 and Fiona Powell 5th, 27:59. All the first five broke their PBs.

Blues skies and a hot cross bun at the end of the race attracted more than 100 runners to the inaugural Kilmington Kantar.

Tom Merson of Exmouth Harriers won in 39:07; a scorching time that could be a record for several years.

The 2.5 mile Fun Run and Junior Kantar was won by Junior Axe Valley Runner Josh Coates in 17:55.

The Kilmington Kantar seven-mile race started at the Cricket Ground then through the village and up a long hill to Shute Woods.

At this point Axe Valley Runner, Chris Keeffe, was in the lead until a leg strain slowed him down.

A fast downhill stretch past Shute House led into a flat section across the valley to Seaton Junction before a demanding climb back to the woods and through Kilmington to the finish.

Luke Reed was 2nd, first AVR and first local runner in 45:11. James Gular came 7th in 46:58 followed by Phil Bayliss 9th and over 50 winner in 47:11. Tom Hilder was 11th, 47:56 in front of his father Mark who finished in 54:05.

Amy Greenhalgh was second lady in 50:09 quickly followed by Tim Sibley, 17th, 50:32.

A determined Chris Keeffe was happy to complete the race in 51:31. Robin Britton and Eleanor Wood battled for a sprint finish with Robin the victor in 51:55 with Eleanor five seconds behind collecting the first lady V50 prize.

Geoff Woodward, who finished in 53:56, was followed home by Adele Foxwell, first V35 lady taking 55:24.

Clare Hansford, 55:37, sprinted in to finish just one second in front of Ian Clements, with Chris Irving not far behind in 57:10.

A stream of AVR runners continued with Andy Sayers, 61:16, Heather Riggs, 63:05 and Anna McLoughlin, 64:36. Dave and Lisa Braunton enjoyed the race together finishing in 70:14.

Next came Emma Ellynn, 73:10, Bridget Keeffe, 73:26, Janet Cullum, 74:43, with Diane Newton and Anna Murphy in a joint time of 79:55, then Sam Studley in 86:28. Harry Moore won a prize for the oldest competitor in a time of 118:12.

The first adult home in the combined Fun Run and Junior Kantar was AVR's Rick Wood in a time of 22:06.

COLYTON played host to Elmore Eagles in their last league game of the season.

Both teams started brightly and Elmore Eagles drew first blood. Colyton continued to press forward and were rewarded after determination from Danny Searle down the left wing set up Colyton's first goal for Ryan Dunn.

Colyton were slower out of the blocks in the second half and two quick goals saw them 3-1 down. Always fighting, a goal from James Hill brought it back to 3-2.

A quick goal from the opposition got Colyton fired up and from a goal line clearance Colyton went on to score their third goal by Danny Searle. Colyton continued to press forward but were unable to convert any more of their numerous chances.

golf news from Axe Cliff, Honiton and Lyme Regis

Axe captains' aim is true

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack

CAPTAINS' DRIVE-IN

DESPITE overcast skies, it did at least it stayed fine, the Captains' Drive-In at Axe Cliff on Saturday, April 7th was a huge success.

It started well when all three of the club Captains Barbara Cummings (Lady Captain), Rob Grove (Senior Captain) and Paul Clode (Club Captain), finding the fairway with their drives.

The first fairway had been liberally scattered with markers as members tried to guess where each drive would finish with the lucky winners being Richard Gibbons (Lady's Prize), Steve Bond (Senior's Prize) and Paul Curtin (Captain's Prize).

There followed a TEXAS SCRAMBLE for teams of three. The competition was well received and keenly contested and produced some close scores. The winners were Geoff Greenslade, Andy Trivett & Alan Paul with 52.8.

In second place were Nigel Garwood, Simon Sweetland & Peter Knighting with 55.1 and in third position were Andrew Hellier, Paul Williams & Iain Bain with 57.1.

The fourth place was taken by Brian Board, Andy Gabb & John White with 57.7.

The prize for the best Mixed team went to Caroline Board, Tony Snell & Malcolm Glass with a score of 57.9.

Prizes were presented by all the Captains in a packed clubhouse where members enjoyed a Bar-B-Q as well as their liquid refreshment.

As a result of the day the Captains' charities received a boost with £160 being raised.

If the year continues as well this we can all look forward to good golf, good companionship and good times at Axe Cliff.

Seniors

IN the Seniors' Section the first inter-club match of the season took place on Monday, April 2nd.

The conditions were excellent and the visitors, Long Sutton, took advantage of this to win a closely contested match by the narrowest margin of 3 1/2 to 2 1/2.

Winners for Axe Cliff were John Mant & Jack Bannister and Tony Strong & Peter Knighting. The half point was won by Geoff Hubbard & Hugh Willis.

Thirty six players took part in the April Stableford, again in fine Spring conditions. The winner with 40 points was Sid Pember (19). Second was Tony Strong (9) with 37 points, while two players were one point behind on 36 points.

On countback third place went to Tony Horton (26) with Bob Berry (22) the player to miss out.

There were two 2s, from Rob Heard and Neil Moorcraft.

MAIN CLUB

ON Sunday, April 8th the April Medal was contested.

In Division One the winner was Theo Boalch (11) with a nett 71. Second place went to Captain Paul Clode (7) with a nett 72 and in third place was Alan Morgan (10) with a nett 74.

The Second Division saw some excellent scores with the first three players reducing their handicaps.

First place went to Alan Palmer (20) with a nett 67, second place Peter Smith (16) with a nett 68 beating Simon Palmer (16) also with a nett 68 on the back nine.

SENIORS

WITH an air frost still present around the course, 70 stalwart Seniors assembled to compete for honours in the first Stableford competition of the summer season.

The course was in immaculate condition for the time of the year with firm fairways giving good run, albeit with some erratic bounces due to the dry hard ground.

The greens were mainly very consistent and there were no really valid excuses for not carding respectable scores, and this was reflected in the winning scores.

Division One was won by Brian Ridley (17) with 44 points followed by John Coley (7) with 39 and David Lines (12) with 37.

Scores recorded in Division Two were no less impressive with Barry Carter (22) clinching first place with 40 points followed by David Newell (20) with 39 points and John Singleton (21) with 37 points.

PRO AM MEDAL

THE annual Pro Am Medal was played out on Sunday. It's a PGA sponsored event that meant the winner got to progress to a knock out round at Saunton partnered by our Club Professional Adrian Cave.

The honour was keenly contested and although Vice Captain Dave Morgan was in contention a 7 at the last ruined his chances.

The overall winner came from Division One with Steve Waller shooting a 3 under par nett 66.

Stuart Selway took second with a 68 and Mike Williams was third with a 69.

Division Two was a tight affair with Buzz Harris shading it on count back from Keith Crane with nett 69s whilst Darren England had to be content in third with his nett 70.

TUESDAY MIXED

AMERICAN Foursomes is always a popular format for the Tuesday Mixed Competition hence the large field taking part.

This was the first week of the later starting time and although colder than the previous week most of the competitors managed to finish their round before the rain set in.

In first place with 41pts on c/b were Lesley Oxenham and Max Pipe. In second place also on 41pts were Jan Dickinson and Terry Dimond. Third place went to Carole Booth and Bob Barnes with 39pts.

Fourth place with 38pts were Lady Captain Jackie Seager and Laurie Tollemache.

SENIORS SECTION

SIXTY-four Seniors played a three-man team event in brilliant sunshine, which for some was the only feel-good factor.

With one player scoring on the odd numbered holes and two on the evens, several groups scored very well, the best being Brian Hoepelman, John Vessey and the infamous Pete Morgan.

Pete has proved that he can win off his reduced winter handicap, but now that he has regained two shots for the summer he is the man to beat.

They scored 66 points, edging out the captain's team of John Discombe, Mike Stroud and John Kerr by one point.

John Lamb, Bill Nicholls and Dave Morgan came in with 60 points, just beating Stan Squire, Ron Jones and Keith Crane on countback.

ON THE SPOT...

QHow long have you been involved in local football? Who have you played for?

AI've played for Honiton since I moved down when I was 18, so this is my sixth season with 'Town.

QName the best three players you played alongside.

AShaun Lapping - Great defender, always dependable, and won everything in the air. Steve Rampaul - like a duracell bunny he just keeps going for 90 minutes giving nothing less than a 110 percent. Brad Groves - all-round good player, great touch, can score a goal from nothing.

QWhat's the best away ground you've played on?

AElmore FC's Horsden Park - a good flat pitch and very good facilities.

QDo any games stick in your memory?

ANorth Tawton - we were 4-1 up before they fought back to 4-3 and I saved a penalty right near the end of the game. Tiverton Town - Only a few weeks ago - we took there unbeaten record with a 3-2 victory that proved we can mix it with anyone in our league.

QHow would you improve things at Honiton Town FC?

AThere's not many things I would change. We have a brilliant set up, the only possible thing would be floodlights.

QName some young players we should look out for in the future.

AJoe Dixon - already a great finisher and passer of the ball, he's only going to keep getting better. Jake Netherway - Our 'mini Mascherano' breaks the play up and plays it simple.

National medals for Honiton duo

HONITON acrobatic gymnasts, Buster Tutchter and Ashley Wallis, took silver medals at the recent British Acrobatic Gymnastics Championships in the 11-16 men's pair event.

The medals are the highest accolade so far for the duo. Honiton Gym Club High performance coach James Reddy who, along with his wife Helen and Emma Smith, coach the pair, said: 'It was an exciting weekend for Buster and Ashley. They scored a personal best, and were only beaten by the current European age group champions.

"This shows how much they have improved over the past 12 months. We're incredibly proud of them."

Also claiming national medals were Honiton's 11-16 mixed pair, 10-year-old Charlotte Bevis from Honiton Primary School and 15-year-old Josh Jackson from Ivybridge.

The junior trio of Jes Kennaway, Rachel Palfrey and Valentine Tutchter put in an excellent performance, finishing in ninth, and Kaisha Dessalines-Wright and Alice Hewstone finished 11th in the 11-16 girls' pairs event.

Mr Reddy added: "Honiton may only be a small town, but we're gaining an increasing reputation for the acrobatic gymnasts here.

"This year we've already produced regional champions at various levels, and now that we've had success at a national level our budding younger gymnasts have strong role models to look up to."

This week Honiton Gym Club launched its first "potential group" sessions to prepare the young gymnasts that it believes will be stars of the future, concentrating on perfecting their fundamental skills at an early age.
